General Information

14th-ranked Wesley makes its ninth-straight and tenth overall NCAA Playoff appearance and hosts No. 24 Ithaca College on Saturday, November 30, at 12 pm. Fans can follow live stats or live video coverage by logging onto GoWesleyAthletics.com or can listen to live commentary on WDEL.com or 1150AM. The winner will take on the winner of the Mount Union/Wittenburg matchup on Saturday, December 7.

Series History

This is the first meeting between the two teams. The squads have one common opponent this season in Salisbury with both teams winning in thrilling fashion. Wesley defeated the Sea Gulls in the closing seconds on a Hail Mary toss to Jeremiah Howe while the Bombers defeated Salisbury, 24-23 in overtime.

Last Time Out

Wesley advanced to its ninth-straight NCAA Second Round with a 29-24 win at #8 Johns Hopkins last Saturday. After allowing a touchdown with 50 seconds left, Joe Callahan drove the Wolverines 82 yards on just 5 plays in 38 seconds. Callahan hit Steve Koudossou (11 catches, 132 yards, 3 TDs) on a post pattern for a 33-yard TD with 12.8 seconds left. Malik Jones recorded a sack on the game's final play. Callahan threw for 244 yards and 4 TDs on 27-of-43 passing. Sosthene Kapepula and Derrick Bender each had 2 TFLs while Jordan Wescott and Luke Maginnins had ten tackles each.

Scouting the Bombers

Ithaca excels on the defensive side of the ball, allowing just 15.3 points per game and just 303.2 yards per game. Five times, the Bombers held their opponents to under ten points with the most they allowed being 28, in a regular season loss to Cortland State. Will Carter leads the team with 92 tackles along with 8.5 TFLs and six sacks. Brian Hardenberg, who has recovered a team-high four fumbles, is right behind with 71 tackles while his 10.5 TFLs are second on the squad to Jake Santora's 11.5. Santora has missed the last three games with an injury and is not expected to play. Dan and Mike Sheldon are bookends of a 3-4 Front and have combined for 13.5 TFLs and 65 tackles. In the secondary, Brian Garvey and Mike Vulcano each have four interceptions. Sam Carney is a playmaker all over the field with two interceptions, two forced fumbles and 32 tackles while averaging 28 yards per kick return and 16.3 yards a punt return.

Offensively, the Bombers have battled injury at running back as Evan Skea was well on his way to a 1,000 yard season before getting hurt. Healthy now, Skea has rushed for 384 yards and a TD, ranking second to Rakim Jones' 494 yards and five touchdowns. Tommy Padula is also expected to carry the load, rushing for 253 yards on 79 carries.

Tom Dempsey is slated to start at QB and has completed 61.1% of his passes for 1,454 yards and 13 TDs to just 7 interceptions. Phil Neumann has also got substantial time under center with 753 yards and 4 passing touchdowns.

Jared Prugar and Vito Boffoli have 42 and 41 catches, respectively, but Prugar has 748 yards and 6 Tds to just 400 yards and 3 scores for Boffoli. Joel Lynch is a great third threat with 37 catches for 495 yards and six TDs. Chris Bauer (19-204) and Steve DelMoro (17-185) should also be targeted.

HEAD COACH MIKE DRASS

Wesley head coach Mike Drass has continued the Wolverines' winning tradition since taking over as head coach in 1993. Now in his 21st season as head coach, and his 25th overall with the program, Drass is fifth among active Division III coaches with a .783 winning percentage and 186 wins. Among coaches at the three four-year football programs in Delaware, Drass ranks second all-time to former Delaware head coach Tubby Raymond. Raymond won 300 contests, but Drass' 78.3% winning percentage is the best all-time of any coach while at Wesley, Delaware or Delaware State. The Wolverines have finished .500 or better in all of Coach Drass' 21 seasons at the helm, with 13 seasons with at least eight wins and seven with at least ten wins.

Callahan Cruises In First Career Start

Redshirt sophomore Joe Callahan had the best game for a quarterback in Wesley College history in a 33-21 victory over #20 Widner in the season opener. Callahan set school-records for completions (37) and passing yards (510) and did not throw an interception. The 510 yards is the most passing yards at any NCAA level for a quarterback in their first career start.

Koudossou Rapidly Climbing Up Wesley Receiving Charts

In the season opener against #20 Widener, junior wide receiver Steve Koudossou recorded a school-record 266 receiving yards. In just two full seasons and through just two games this year, Koudossou is already on several of Wesley's all-time top ten lists. His 30 receiving touchdowns are second all-time for the Wolverines, and when you add his five rushing scores, he is fifth all-time with 34 touchdowns. A native of Waldorf, Md., Koudossou has caught 136 passes (2nd all-time) for 2,179 yards (5th all-time).

Success Against The Best

Wesley has not shied away from playing teams at the Division I or Division II levels and have had success. With a win at Charlotte on November 9, who Wesley will also take on in 2014, the Wolverines have now won three-straight games against Division I squads (Charleston Southern in 2011) and Iona in 2008).

The Wolverines also have been known to schedule the toughest that Division III has to offer and have by far the toughest-ranked schedule in the Nation.

Four Players Named Preseason All-Americans

Seniors Jared Morris (FS), Leon Jones (CB) and Sean Hopkins (PR) as well as junior linebacker Sosthene Kapepula were all named Preseason All-Americans by various publications prior to the 2013 season.

Morris: a First Team All-American in 2012 after leading the Wolverines with six interceptions. Transitioning from the offensive to defensive side of the ball, Morris finished the season ranked third on the team in tackles (76) and tackles for loss (8.0) while also returning a kickoff for a touchdown against Mount Ida in the Playoffs. In the season opener at East Texas Baptist, Morris' first game as a defensive player, he picked off a Wesley single-game record four passes in a 34-14 victory.

Jones: One of the premier corners in small college football, Jones was a BSN All-American in 2011 after picking off six passes, including a memorable 99-yard return for a touchdown in a comeback win over Linfield in the NCAA Playoffs. The native of Lindenwold, N.J., followed that up with two more interceptions at Mount Union in the NCAA Semifinals before recording three picks and 25 tackles in 2012.

Hopkins: 2012 BSN All-American after leading all of NCAA Division III with an impressive 18.6 yards per punt return average in 2012. Hailing from nearby Georgetown, Del., Hopkins had eight returns of over 20 yards and five over forty, including a season-long 49 yard return for a touchdown at Huntingdon.

Kapepula: Had one of the best seasons in Wolverines history as a sophomore and earned Second Team All-America and ECAC Defensive Player of the Year honors. Finishing the season with 13.0 tackles for loss, four forced fumbles and a nation-leading four fumble recoveries, the team captain from Olney, Md., made 120 tackles, the most by a Wolverine since Rocky Myers recorded 124 stops in 2004. Kapepula closed out the season with a career-high 18 tackles at Mary Hardin-Baylor in the NCAA Quarterfinals.

Rocky Myers Now A Namesake

USA College Football, a Division of USA Football Network, Inc. has announced that the Division III Defensive Back of the Year Trophy will now be known as the Myers Trophy, named after former Wesley College football standout Rocky Myers. Myers is still the only defensive player to ever win the Gagliardi Trophy, which is widely recognized as the premier individual award in Division III football, honoring excellence in athletics, academics and community service.

2013 Wesley College Hall of Famers

On October 4, 2013, Wesley College's Athletic Department inducted 14 new members into its Hall of Fame. Eight of those players are former football players which also includes five players who played at Wesley during the school's junior college era (prior to 1986).

Kelvin Bellamy ('85) - 2-time JUCO All-American, played at Morehead St, Steve Colavito ('71) - 1970 JUCO All-America, played at Wake Forest, NFL's Philadelphia Eagles and awarded to the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the 1976 Veteran Allocation Draft.

Mike Feeley ('73) - 1972 All-American before playing at Richmond
Bruce Marine ('64) - Also a wrestler, went to play football at UConn.
Sean McCullin ('00) - Four year starter on Offensive Line and All-American
Dave Roccio ('76) - All-American on 1976 undefeated team before playing at Towson.

Pat Schneider ('03) - Four-year starter, All-American, played on 1st NCAA Playoff Team.

Andre Summers ('02) - Four-year starter, two-time All-American, played on 1st NCAA Playoff Team
